

JSC TRANSMĖJA

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENTAL, OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY, FOOD SAFETY POLITICS

2021-03-01

JSC Transmėja is a reliable carrier with many years of experience in the international transportation market. The company transports cargo by its own transport and provides forwarding services.

JSC "Transmėja" employees undertake to demand the company's activities - to implement high service quality standards, impeccable customer service, ensure food safety requirements, apply modern technologies, implement more environmentally friendly solutions, develop a motivated professional team, take care of employee safety and health, accept quick and reasoned problems solutions. This guarantees customers high-quality road haulage services in Europe and the CIS and is an attractive employer in the logistics sector.

By improving the quality of the company's management and service provision processes, in order to ensure successful and purposeful development, a stable and competitive market position, we are committed to:

- to carry out activities in accordance with the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania regulating the business branch and other requirements that the company undertakes to carry out in order to comply with LST EN ISO 9001: 2015, LST EN ISO 14001: 2015, LST EN ISO 45001: 2018 standards and HACCP;
- to continuously improve the adequacy and effectiveness of the integrated management system, taking into account the results of operations, feedback from customers, partners, employees;
- to ensure the safety requirements of transported non-temperature, packaged food products in accordance with the HACCP system;
- protect the environment by preventing or reducing negative effects on the environment, increase the effectiveness of environmental protection;
- rational use of energy and natural resources, innovation and search for solutions to improve the quality of service provision;
- continuously improve relations with its partners, subcontractors and suppliers;
- to promote the professional development of employees, to develop the responsibility of employees for the protection of the environment, the necessity of ensuring food safety, to carry out pollution prevention, safe and responsible use in the performance of activities;
- to guarantee a healthy and safe working environment for employees, to help the employee to understand the responsibility for protecting the health and safety of himself and others, to implement measures for the prevention of accidents and incidents.

General Manager

Rima Braziulienė